Create. New. Ideas.
Your input into the Tchibo world of tomorrow!

Why has Tchibo been the professional home of change-makers, opportunity-seekers and innovation-drivers for generations? Because it's our business to keep reinventing ourselves. That is how we keep meeting the taste of the times with our high-quality coffees – and delighting our customers every week with clever new products that add that certain extra to life. Do you have surprisingly good ideas for tomorrow's market? Then join us in actively shaping the world of Tchibo. So that we can remain what we are: one of the most popular and best-known brands in Germany - and beyond.

Intern (m/f) E-Commerce Denmark

Location: Hamburg

You're certain to like the following:

Tchibo is a well-known brand offering its customers a wide range of self-developed products from clothing to home & living in highly curated theme worlds and power categories. Being a leading e-commerce player in Europe, Tchibo is heading for further international expansion. You are going to be a member of our dynamic online expansion team striving for international growth in European and global markets. You are going to support us in the online-entry in new markets with focus on Denmark. Together we will face and tackle the challenges of positioning, operating and scaling our brand in a new market. Therefore, you will support the team in market analysis for brand-positioning, assortment and marketing planning as well as handling of online-shop operations adapted to local market requirements. You will gain deep insights into e-commerce internationalization, learn day-to-day management tasks and build up knowledge on a wide range within strategy, marketing & sales of e-commerce.

And we're certain to appreciate:

- Advanced studies in a business related field of study
- Keen on learning more about marketing & sales and e-commerce
- Enthusiastic, self-motivated and hands-on personality as well as a strong ability to work in a team
- Fluent in Danish and English
- Starting date: As soon as possible for the duration of 6 months
