

Description of the institution

Vision Lingua is an independent Spanish language school based in the center of Madrid. We offer a wide range of courses, from beginner to advanced level in a professional but pleasant environment. All of our teachers are native Spanish speakers with university degrees and a passion for teaching. The size of our classes usually range from 4-8 are mainly focussed around speaking and grammar. We also offer an activity programme for students and organise events/excursions after lessons and at the weekends. We combine small language classes with workshops and cultural excursions, always held in a fun, dynamic and friendly learning environment. Vision Lingua opened in 2009. The majority of our students come from Europe. The age of our students range from 13 – 60+ however our courses are mostly popular amongst University students or young professionals who wish to improve their language competency.
