

Amazing grad opportunities with the world's top beer brands

We're pleased to inform you that Anheuser-Busch InBev (AB InBev), the world's leading brewer, is looking for motivated graduates who are focused, resilient, ambitious and passionate about building a dynamic, global and challenging career.

Think you're up for the challenge? Check out our three graduate programmes – each has been designed to help you develop and accelerate your career at one of the world's most successful organisations.

A bit about AB InBev

As the world's leading brewer, we produce over 400 beers, including world-famous brands like Budweiser, Stella Artois and Corona. With approximately 155,000 employees in 25 countries, and a heritage dating back to 1366, we're continuing the proud tradition of forging strong connections through beer – with consumers, colleagues and communities.

Market Visionaries Programme (MVP)

Our Market Visionaries Programme gives you the opportunity to be out in the field and on the frontline of sales. You'll be finding new customers and getting to know them, negotiating deals with small and big business owners, and looking for ways to activate and grow our world-famous brands.

Supply Management Trainee Programme (SMT)

Our Supply Management Trainee Programme gives you a hands-on opportunity to learn the process behind the brewing, packaging and delivery of our world-famous beer brands. You'll learn leadership skills, see how teams are managed behind the processes, and be comfortable with the action-packed pace in the brewery – all while adhering to the highest standards and tight production schedules.

Fast Track Apprenticeship (FTA)

Our Fast Track Apprenticeship gives you a unique insight into how we organise the movement of our products within and between countries, including transportation planning, trouble shooting, reporting, and more. You'll work on real projects and challenges, and you'll be given the training and support you need to succeed – so together, we can continue to be the world's leading brewer.

Apply today for an exciting career.
