

Ensuring emergency responders don't lose a single second.
That's worth working for.

Our mobile ventilation technology helps emergency responders care for patients in life-threatening situations. As an intern at Dräger, you'll receive plenty of freedom to develop your own ideas, your first taste of responsibility in the workplace and a great grounding for a successful career in the future. At Dräger, you'll be part of an international team united by a passion for protecting, supporting and saving lives. www.draeger.com/careers

Dräger. Technology for Life®

Internship in Mergers & Acquisitions

Drägerwerk AG & Co. KGaA, Lübeck, Schleswig-Holstein

YOUR TASKS

- You will support our international team for a period of 3 to 6 months.
- You will carry out detailed market and competition analyses for Mergers & Acquisitions and will be actively involved in corporate research and evaluations.
- You will help to develop market-entry strategies and deal structures.
- You will help us to develop and present internal process specifications.

YOUR STRENGTHS

- You are studying economics, ideally with a focus on market analysis, and are in at least your 4th semester of study.
- You have a high level of quality awareness and great analytical and conceptual abilities.
- You work independently and have a good understanding of corporate contexts.
- You have an excellent command of the English language and are proficient in MS Office.

OUR OFFER

You can flexibly plan your varied 35-hour week that we remunerate with €700 per month. We provide you with the opportunity to face new challenges in a leading international medical and safety technology company with around 13,300 employees and to get to know us as an employer. With a diverse range of events put on by and for students, you will also get to know Dräger above and beyond your own field of activity. Our comprehensive range of sporting activities and further training opportunities awaits you after working hours.

YOUR APPLICATION

Thank you for your interest in Draeger. We look forward to reviewing your qualifications and hope to contact you soon.
